

Spirituality Ministry of the Sisters of Mercy
at Mercy Convent
Nashville, Tennessee

The Spirituality Ministry at Mercy Convent provides an environment of hospitality for retreats and gatherings. In the pastoral setting of nineteen wooded acres, persons of all faiths engage in prayer and dialogue for personal and communal transformation.

Beautiful surroundings allow for private contemplation in our chapels and our resource library. Single rooms with private bathrooms are available for overnight guests.

It provides an ideal setting for group gatherings offering a Conference Room for 30 as well as smaller gathering spaces.

It offers accommodations for:

- Groups to bring in retreats
- Groups to bring in meetings

The Spirituality Ministry Sponsors opportunities for retreats.

*"Come to me all you who labor...

Mercy Convent is the home for retired Sisters of Mercy in Tennessee. These sisters walk very specifically in the footsteps of the first Sister of Mercy, Catherine McAuley.

Catherine was born in Dublin, Ireland; she began the first House of Mercy to serve those in need. In 1831 she founded the Sisters of Mercy to extend God's reign through compassion and hospitality.

Today there are 8,000 Sisters of Mercy in 13 congregations serving in 47 countries around the world.

"Put your whole confidence in God."

Catherine McAuley
